Psalm 23 (Chant by Gareth Wilson)

THE Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall covert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

[Stand] Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. World without end, Amen.

First Reading: Intimations by Raymond Chapman

Henry Vaughan saw eternity
and far beyond star countries;
Blake met angels in the garden
pleasantly building green Jerusalem.

I border bred, London extended,
little matchstick man
for whom the sparrows do not care two farthings,
remain untutored by exceptions

Lord keep us in our proper stations.

If the communion of saints
is not only the shining ones
but the incompetent and ineffective,
let grace sidle down the repeated street
and a wing flash in ambiguous sunlight

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 1:1-7

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
To the church of God that is in Corinth, including all the saints throughout
Achaia: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation, who consoles us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to console those who are in any affliction with the consolation with which we ourselves are consoled by God. For just as the sufferings of Christ are abundant for us, so also our consolation is abundant through Christ. If we are being afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation; if we are being consoled, it is for your consolation, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we are also suffering. Our hope for you is unshaken; for we know that as you share in our sufferings, so also you share in our consolation.

The Commemoration of the Departed (after the sermon)

Chaplain You are worthy, our Lord and God,
to receive glory and honour and power.

All For you have created all things,
and by your will they have their being.

Chaplain You are worthy, O Lamb, for you were slain,
and by your blood you ransomed for God
saints from every tribe and language and nation.

All You have made them to be a kingdom and priests
serving our God,
and they will reign with you on earth.

The names of those to be remembered will be read aloud. A period of silence will be kept after all the names have been read.

All Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with the saints:
where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Chaplain You only are immortal, the creator and maker of all:
and we are mortal, formed from the dust of the earth,
and unto earth shall we return.
For so you ordained when you created me, saying:

‘Dust you are and to dust you shall return.’
All of us go down to the dust,
yet weeping at the grave, we make our song:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with the saints:
where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Chaplain Hear us, O merciful Father,
as we remember in love
those whom we have placed in your hands.
Acknowledge, we pray, the sheep of your own fold,
lambs of your own flock,
sinners of your own redeeming.
Enfold them in the arms of your mercy,
in the blessed rest of everlasting peace,
and in the glorious company of the saints in light.

All Amen.
