

If they are happy to proceed, they then click 'submit'.

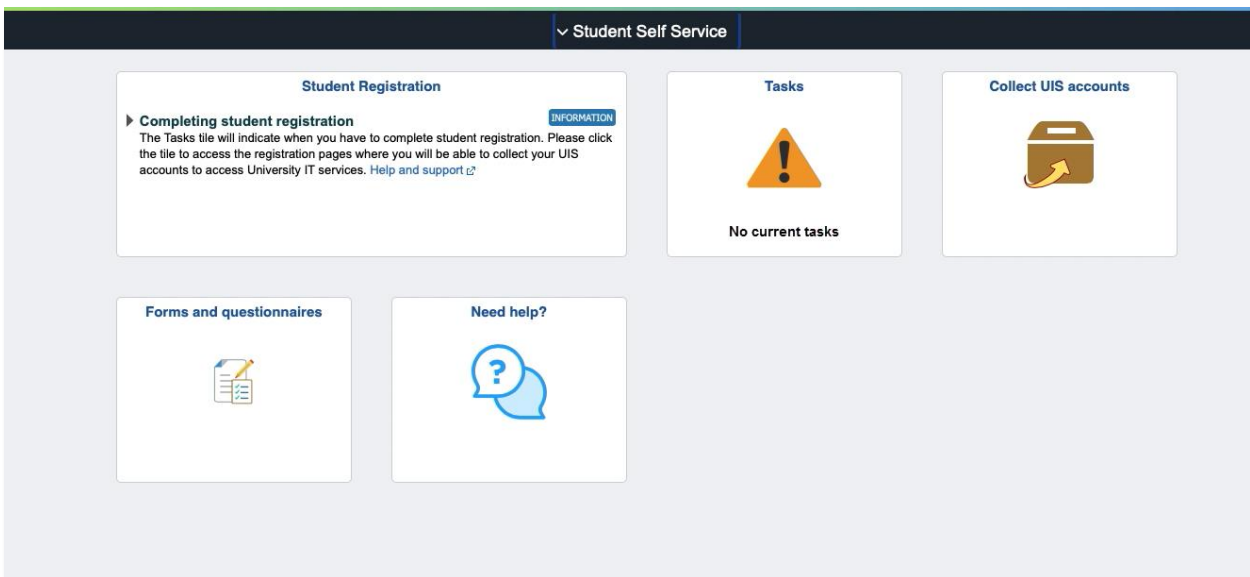

If you are a new student to the University of Cambridge, you will then be shown an icon you can click, which will take you to collect your UIS Account and a link to 'Voter Registration'.

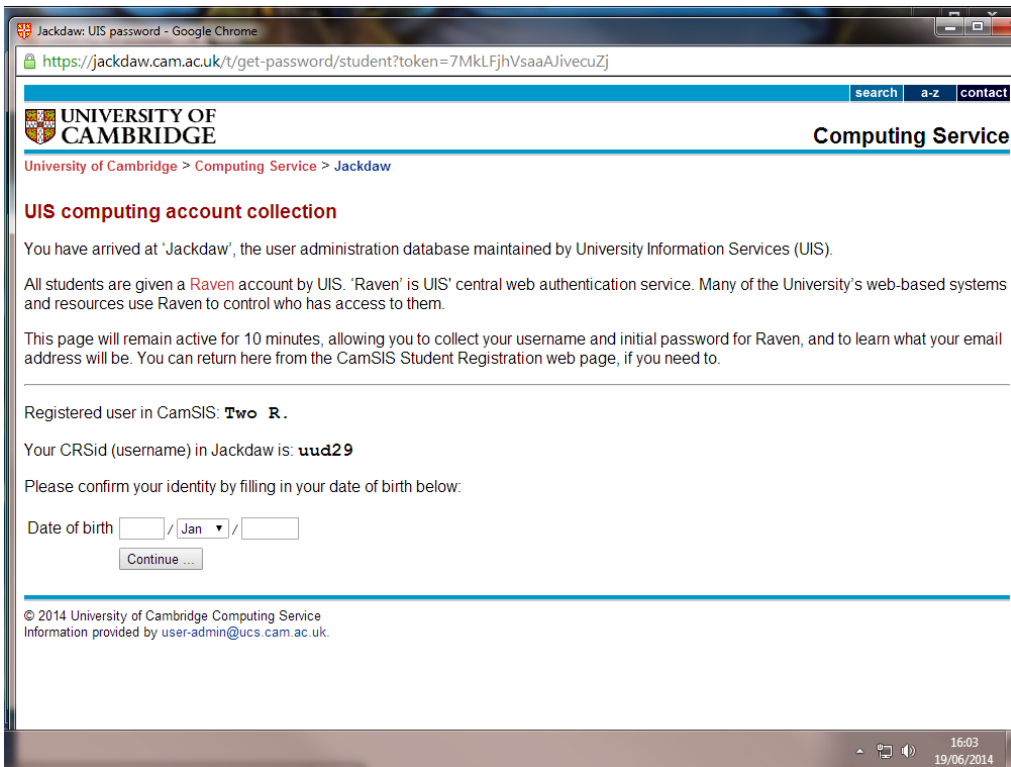

If your UIS passwords are not ready to collect or you do not progress to the account collection page at this point, you will be able to log in to Self-service at a later date using the same temporary CamSIS Self-Service log in ID and Password.

You will see a tile on your Self-Service page that will take you to collect your UIS Passwords and the 'To do' tile will no longer show that you need to complete registration.

Collection of UIS Accounts

Some initial information will be required with account collection pages to verify the identity of the student.

After which you will see some explanation about the account that you are collecting.

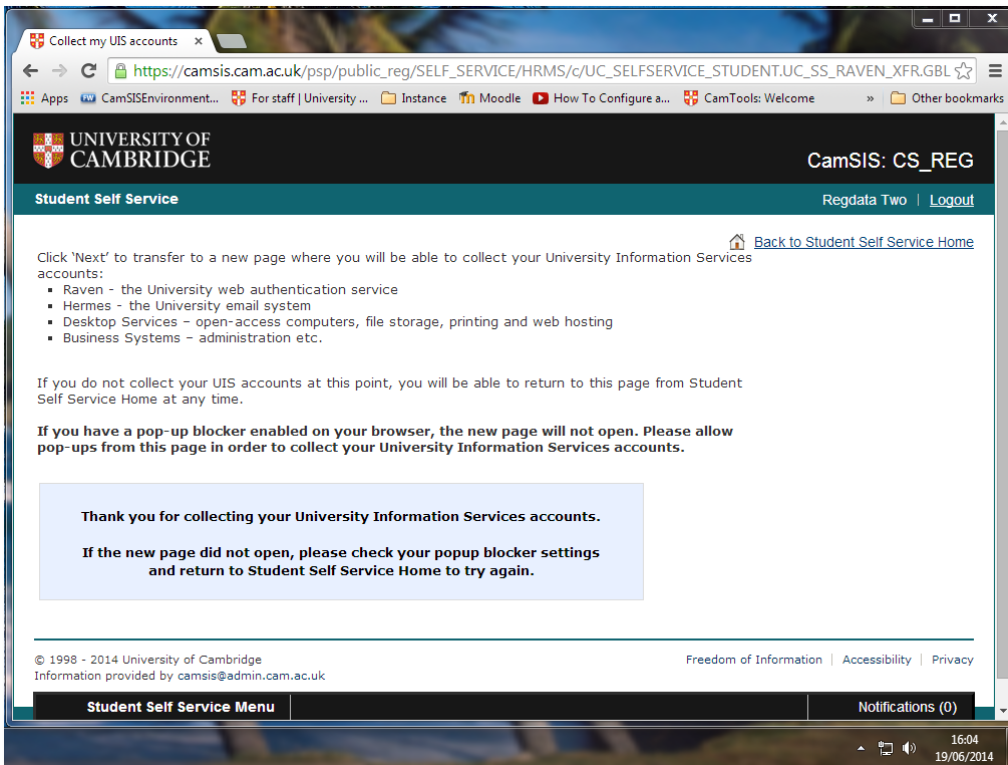

You will then click “Continue”, after which you will be provided with your initial password.

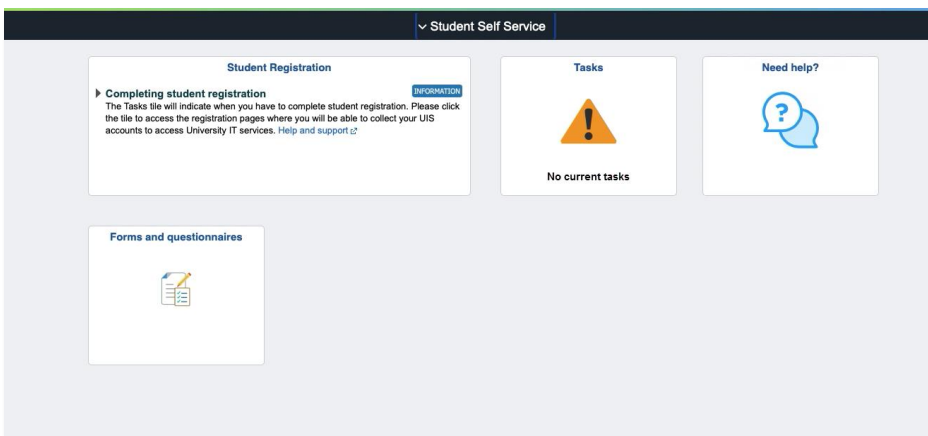

You are then directed to follow the link to the UIS Password Management Application to allow you to create your own memorable password.

The Jackdaw screen can then be closed, and the student will be returned to their CamSIS Self-Service page which will be updated as follows:

If you then log in again to CamSIS Self-Service page, you will see the following:

New students do not get to see any more in their Self-Service until the start of term.
