STATUTE XXVII

ACADEMIC STAFF

PART I CONSTRUCTION, APPLICATION AND INTERPRETATION

1. This Statute and any Ordinance made under this Statute shall be construed in every case to give effect to the following guiding principles, that is to say:

   (a) to ensure that members of the academic staff of the College have freedom within the law to question and test received wisdom, and to put forward new ideas and controversial or unpopular opinions, without placing themselves in jeopardy of losing their jobs or privileges;

   (b) to enable the College to provide education, to promote learning, and to engage in research efficiently and economically; and

   (c) to apply the principles of justice and fairness.

2. No provision in Part II, Part III, Part IV or Part VII shall enable any member of the academic staff to be dismissed unless the reason for the dismissal may in the circumstances (including the size and administrative resources of the College) reasonably be treated as a sufficient reason for dismissal.

3. (1) This Statute shall apply –

   (a) to such persons as may be determined by Ordinance to be College Officers;

   (b) to any person employed by the College to carry out teaching or research save for those holding appointments which have been excluded by the Council from the scope of this Statute on the ground that the duties in that regard are only of a limited nature; and

   (c) to the Mistress, to the extent and in the manner set out in Part VII of this Statute.

   (2) In this Statute any reference to “academic staff” is a reference to persons to whom this Statute applies.
4. (1) For the purposes of this Statute the following terms have the meanings specified:
“dismiss” and “dismissal” mean dismissal of a member of the academic staff and
(a) include remove or, as the case may be, removal from office; and
(b) in relation to employment under a contract, shall be construed in accordance with section 95 of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

(2) “good cause” in relation to the dismissal or removal from office of a member of the academic staff of the College, being in any case a reason which is related to conduct or capability or qualifications for performing work of the kind which the member was appointed or employed to do, means:
(a) conviction for an offence which may be deemed by a Disciplinary Committee appointed under Part III to be such as to render the person convicted unfit for the execution of the duties of her office or for employment as a member of the academic staff of the College; or
(b) conduct of an immoral, scandalous, or disgraceful nature incompatible with the duties of the office or employment; or
(c) conduct constituting failure or persistent refusal or neglect or inability to perform the duties or comply with the conditions of the office or employment; or to cease, to carry on that activity in the place in which the member concerned worked; or

(b) the fact that the requirements of that activity for members of the academic staff of the College to carry out work of a particular kind in that place have ceased or diminished or are expected to cease or diminish.

6. (1) In any case of conflict, the provisions of this Statute shall prevail over those of any other Statute in force on the date on which the instrument making these modifications was approved under subsection (9) of section 204 of the Education Reform Act 1988, and over those of any Ordinance, and the provisions of any Ordinance made under this Statute shall prevail over those of any Ordinance made under such other Statutes:

Provided that Part III, Part IV and Part VII shall not apply in relation to anything done or omitted to be done before the date on which the instrument making these modifications was approved under subsection (9) of section 204 of the Education Reform Act 1988.

Provided also that disciplinary proceedings in relation to anything done or omitted to be done before that date may continue or be instituted after that date under the relevant College Statutes in force before that date.

(2) Nothing in any appointment made, or contract entered into, shall be construed as overriding or excluding any provision made by this Statute concerning the dismissal of a member of the academic staff of the College by reason of redundancy or for good cause:

Provided that this (a) shall not affect the validity of any compromise agreement made under section 203 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 or any agreement or waiver of rights generally; and (b) shall not preclude any member of the academic staff agreeing to terminate her office or employment by the College on whatever terms may be agreed.

(3) Nothing in any other Statute shall enable the Council to delegate its power to reach a decision under section 10(2).

(4) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that nothing in Part III shall be construed as affecting the Statutes and Ordinances of the College concerning re-election on the expiry of a fixed term of a Fellowship.

(2) In any case where an officer of the College or any person is designated to perform any duties or exercise any powers under this Statute, and that officer or person is herself involved in the matter in question, the Council may appoint an alternate to act in her place under procedures prescribed by an Ordinance made under this Statute.

11. (1) Where the appropriate body has reached a decision under section 10(2) –

(c) two members of the academic staff.

(4) A member of the academic staff shall not be selected for dismissal under this section unless she has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the appropriate body.

12. (1) Where the appropriate body has made a selection it may authorise an officer of the college as its delegate to dismiss any member of the academic staff so selected.

(2) Each member of the academic staff selected shall be given separate notice of the selection approved by the appropriate body.

(3) Each separate notice shall sufficiently identify the circumstances which have satisfied the appropriate body that the intended dismissal is reasonable and in particular shall include –

(a) a summary of the action taken by the appropriate body under this Part;

(b) an account of the selection processes used;

(c) a reference to the rights of the person notified to appeal against the notice and to the time within which any such appeal is to be lodged under Part V (Appeals); and

(d) a statement as to when the intended dismissal is to take effect.
PART III DISCIPLINE, DISMISSAL AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

13. (1) If it appears to the Mistress that there are grounds for believing that the conduct or performance of a member of the academic staff is or has been unsatisfactory, she shall inquire into the matter. If the Mistress concludes after investigation that the member is or has been at fault, she may issue an oral warning to the member. The Mistress shall specify the reason for the warning, shall indicate that it constitutes the first stage of the College’s disciplinary procedure, and shall advise the member that she may appeal against the warning under sub-section (4) of this section.

(2) If the Mistress concludes after investigation that the fault is sufficiently serious to justify it, or if a further offence occurs, she may issue a written warning to the member. Such a warning shall specify the complaint made against the member, the improvements required in the member’s conduct or performance, and the period of time within which such improvements are to be made. The Mistress shall advise the member that she may appeal against the warning under sub-section (4), and shall indicate that, if no satisfactory improvement takes place within the stated time, a complaint may be made seeking the institution of charges to be heard by a Disciplinary Committee.

(3) The Mistress shall keep a written record of any warning issued under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2). No further account shall be taken of an oral warning when one year has elapsed after the date of issue, and no further account shall be taken of a written warning when two years have elapsed after the date of issue.

(4) A member of the academic staff who wishes to appeal against a disciplinary warning shall inform the Mistress within two weeks. An Appeals Committee appointed by the Council shall hear the appeal and the Committee’s decision shall be final. If the appeal is allowed, the warning shall be disregarded.

14. (1) If there has been no satisfactory improvement following a written warning given under section 13, or in any case where it is alleged that conduct or performance may constitute good cause for dismissal or removal from office, a complaint seeking the institution of charges to be heard by a Disciplinary Committee appointed under section 15 may be made to the Mistress.
(2) To enable the Mistress to deal fairly with any complaint brought to her attention under sub-section (1) she shall institute such enquiries (if any) as appear to her to be necessary.

(3) If it appears to the Mistress (whether on receipt of a complaint or otherwise) that there are grounds for believing that the conduct or performance of a member of the academic staff of the College could constitute good cause for dismissal, she shall write to the person concerned inviting comment in writing and if she considers that the College might otherwise suffer significant harm may suspend the person concerned from the performance of her duties without loss of emolument.

(4) As soon as may be following the comments (if any) or in any event not later than twenty-eight days after they were invited the Mistress shall consider the matter in the light of all the available material and may dismiss the matter summarily, or issue a formal warning to the person concerned, or determine that the matter be considered by a Disciplinary Committee appointed under section 15.

15. If the Mistress has determined that the matter should be considered by a Disciplinary Committee, the Council shall at her request appoint such a Committee to hear the charge or charges, to determine whether the conduct or performance of the person concerned constitutes good cause for dismissal or otherwise constitutes a serious complaint relating to her appointment or employment, and to make recommendations concerning the action (if any) to be taken as a result of the Committee’s findings. Pending the consideration of such recommendations, the Mistress, after consulting the Council, may suspend the person charged from the performance of her duties without loss of emolument.

16. A Disciplinary Committee shall consist of three persons selected by the Council from a panel of nine persons appointed annually by the Governing Body. The members of the panel shall be Fellows of the College or other persons, being members of the Regent House of the University. In selecting members of the panel for appointment as members of a Disciplinary Committee, the Council shall exclude the person charged, and any person who has been involved in or associated with the making of the complaint or any part of it, or who has been involved in any preliminary hearing or investigation.
17. (1) When a Disciplinary Committee has been appointed, the Council shall instruct a solicitor or other suitable person to formulate a charge or charges and to present, or arrange for the presentation of, the charges before the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) It shall be the duty of the person formulating the charge or charges –

(a) to forward the charge or charges to the Committee and to the member of the academic staff concerned, together with the other documents therein specified and a list of all witnesses the College proposes to call, with statements containing the evidence they are expected to give; and

(b) to make any necessary administrative arrangements for the summoning of witnesses, the production of documents and generally for the proper presentation of the case before the Committee.

18. The procedure to be followed in respect of the preparation, hearing, and determination of charges by a Disciplinary Committee shall be prescribed by Ordinances made under this Statute. Such Ordinances shall ensure:

(a) that the person charged is entitled to be represented by another person, whether such person is legally qualified or not, in connection with and at any hearing of charges by a Disciplinary Committee;

(b) that a charge shall not be determined without an oral hearing at which the person charged and any person appointed to represent her are entitled to be present;

(c) that witnesses may be called, both on behalf of the person charged and by the person presenting the charge, and may be questioned concerning any relevant evidence;

(d) that no new witness or documentary evidence may be introduced by the person presenting the charge without the Committee’s consent, which shall not be given save for good reason, and that if late introduction is allowed, the member of the academic staff shall be allowed an adjournment sufficient to allow her to consider and respond to the new evidence; and

(e) that any charge is heard and determined as expeditiously as is reasonably practicable.
19. The Disciplinary Committee shall send its decision on any charge referred to it (together with its findings of fact and the reasons for its decision regarding that charge and its recommendations, if any, as to the appropriate penalty) to the Mistress, the person charged, the person presenting the charge and any person who shall have been added as a party by the Disciplinary Committee.

20. (1) Where the charge or charges are upheld and the Disciplinary Committee finds good cause and recommends dismissal or removal from office, but in no other case, the Mistress, after consulting the Council, shall decide whether or not to dismiss the member of the academic staff concerned.

(2) In any case where the charge or charges are upheld, other than where the Mistress has decided under sub-section (1) to dismiss the member of the academic staff concerned, the action available to the appropriate officer after consulting the Council (not comprising a greater penalty than that recommended by the Disciplinary Committee) shall be –

(a) to discuss the issues raised with the member concerned; or
(b) to advise the member concerned about her future conduct; or
(c) to warn the member concerned; or
(d) to suspend the member concerned for such period as the Mistress shall think fair and reasonable, provided that the suspension shall not extend beyond three months after the date on which the Council shall have considered the Disciplinary Committee’s decision; or
(e) to take such further or other action under the member’s contract of employment or terms of appointment as appears fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case; or
(f) to combine any of the courses of action specified above.

21. (1) Any reference to the Mistress in section 20 shall include a reference to an officer acting as her delegate.

(2) Any action taken by the Mistress or her delegate shall be confirmed in writing.
PART IV REMOVAL FOR INCAPACITY ON MEDICAL GROUNDS

22. (1) This Part makes separate provision for the assessment of incapacity on medical grounds as a good cause for dismissal or removal from office.

(2) In this Part references to medical grounds are references to capability assessed by reference to health or any other physical or mental quality.

(3) In this Part references to the appropriate officer are references to the Mistress or an officer acting as her delegate to perform the relevant act.

(4) References to the member of the academic staff include, in cases where the nature of the alleged disability so requires, a responsible relative or friend or other person with authority to act on behalf of that member in addition to (or instead of) that member.

23. (1) Where it appears to the appropriate officer that the removal of a member of the academic staff on medical grounds should be considered, the appropriate officer –

(a) shall inform the member accordingly; and

(b) shall notify the member in writing that it is proposed to make an application to the member’s doctor for a medical report and shall seek the member’s consent in writing in accordance with the requirements of the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988; and

(c) may suspend the member from the performance of her duties without loss of emolument.

(2) If the member agrees that her removal on those grounds should be considered the College shall meet the reasonable costs of any medical opinion required.

(3) If the member does not agree the appropriate officer shall refer the case in confidence, with any supporting medical and other evidence (including any such evidence submitted by the member), to a Board comprising one person nominated by the Council; one person nominated by the member concerned or, in default of the latter nomination, by the Mistress; and a medically qualified Chair jointly agreed by the Council and the member or, in default of agreement, to be nominated by the President of the Royal College of Physicians.
(4) The procedure to be followed in respect of the preparation, hearing, and determination of a case by a Medical Board shall be prescribed by Ordinances made under this section. Such Ordinances shall ensure:

(a) that the member concerned is entitled to be represented by another person, whether such person is legally qualified or not, in connection with and at any hearing by the Board;
(b) that a case shall not be determined without an oral hearing at which the member’s representative, but not the member herself, is entitled to be present;
(c) that witnesses may be called and questioned concerning any relevant evidence; and
(d) that the case is heard and determined as expeditiously as is reasonably practicable.

(5) The Board may require the member concerned to undergo medical examination at the College’s expense.

24. If the Board determines that the member should be required to retire on medical grounds, the appropriate officer, after consulting the Council, may terminate the employment of the member concerned on those medical grounds.

PART V APPEALS

25. This Part establishes procedures for hearing and determining appeals by members of the academic staff who are dismissed or under notice of dismissal or who are otherwise disciplined.

26. (1) This Part applies –

(a) to appeals against the decisions of the Council as the appropriate body (or of a delegate of that body) to dismiss in the exercise of its powers under Part II;
(b) to appeals arising in any proceedings, or out of any decision reached, under Part III other than appeals under section 13 (Appeals against disciplinary warnings);
(c) to appeals against dismissal otherwise than in pursuance of Part II or Part III;
(d) to appeals against disciplinary decisions otherwise than in pursuance of Part III;
(e) to appeals against decisions reached under Part IV; and
(f) to appeals arising in any proceedings, or out of any decision reached, under Part VII, including appeals against decisions reached in pursuance of section 47; and “appeal” and “appellant” shall be construed accordingly.

(2) No appeal shall however lie against –

(a) a decision of the appropriate body under section 10(2);

(b) the findings of fact of a Disciplinary Committee under Part III, or of a Tribunal under Part VII save where, with the consent of the person or persons hearing the appeal, fresh evidence is called on behalf of the appellant at that hearing;

(c) any medical finding by a Board set up under section 23(3) save where, with the consent of the person or persons appointed, fresh evidence is called on behalf of the appellant at that hearing.

(3) In this Part references to “the person appointed” are references to the person appointed by the Council under section 29 to hear and determine the relevant appeal.

(4) The parties to an appeal shall be the appellant and the Mistress and any other person added as a party at the direction of the person appointed.

27. A member of the academic staff shall institute an appeal by serving on the Mistress, within the time allowed under section 28, notice in writing setting out the grounds of the appeal.

28. (1) A notice of appeal shall be served within twenty-eight days of the date on which the document recording the decision appealed from was sent to the appellant or such longer period, if any, as the person appointed may determine under sub-section (3).

(2) The Mistress shall bring any notice of appeal received (and the date when it was served) to the attention of the Council and shall inform the appellant that she has done so.

(3) Where the notice of appeal was served on the Mistress outside the twenty-eight day period the person appointed under section 29 shall not permit the appeal to proceed unless she considers that justice and fairness so require in the circumstances of the case.

29. (1) Where an appeal is commenced under this Part the appeal shall, subject to the provisions of section 28(3) and sub-section (3) of this section, be heard and determined by a person appointed by the Council in accordance with Ordinances made under this section.
(2) A person appointed under sub-section (1) above shall be
   (a) the person who is the Visitor; or
   (b) a person who holds or has held judicial office or who is a barrister or solicitor of at least ten years’ standing.
(3) The person appointed shall sit alone unless the person considers that justice and fairness will best be served by sitting as an Appeal Tribunal with two other persons appointed in accordance with Ordinances made under this section.
(4) The other persons who may sit with the person appointed shall be –
       (a) one member of the Regent House of the University not being a Fellow; and
       (b) one other member.
30. (1) The procedure to be followed in respect of the preparation, consolidation, hearing and determination of appeals shall be that set out in Ordinances made under this section.
(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing such Ordinances shall ensure –
       (a) that an appellant is entitled to be represented by another person, whether such person be legally qualified or not, in connection with and at any hearing of her appeal;
       (b) that an appeal shall not be determined without an oral hearing at which the appellant, and any person appointed by her to represent her are entitled to be present and, with the consent of the person or persons hearing the appeal, to call witnesses;
       (c) that full and sufficient provision is made for postpone-ments, adjournments, dismissal of the appeal for want of prosecution and for the correction of accidental errors; and
       (d) that the person appointed may set appropriate time limits for each stage (including the hearing itself) to the intent that any appeal shall be heard and determined as expeditiously as is reasonably practicable.
(3) The person or persons hearing the appeal may allow or dismiss an appeal in whole or in part and, without prejudice to the foregoing, may –
       (a) remit an appeal from a decision under Part II to the Council as the appropriate body (or any issue arising in the course of such an appeal) for further consideration as the person or persons hearing the appeal may direct; or

(b) remit an appeal arising under Part III for re-hearing by a differently constituted Disciplinary Committee to be appointed under that Part; or

(c) remit an appeal from a decision of the Mistress under Part IV for further consideration as the person or persons hearing the appeal may direct; or

(d) remit an appeal by the Mistress arising under Part VII for re-hearing or reconsideration by the same or by a differently constituted Tribunal to be appointed under that Part; or

(e) substitute any lesser alternative penalty that would have been open to the Mistress following the finding by the Disciplinary Committee which heard and pronounced upon the original charge or charges.

31. The person appointed shall send the reasoned decision on any appeal together with any findings of fact different from those come to by the Council as the appropriate body under Part II or by the Disciplinary Committee under Part III, as the case may be, to the Mistress and to the parties to the appeal.

PART VI GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

32. The aim of this Part is to settle or redress individual grievances promptly, fairly and so far as may be, within the relevant area by methods acceptable to all parties.

33. The grievances to which this Part applies are ones by members of the academic staff concerning their appointments or employment where those grievances relate –

(a) to matters affecting themselves as individuals; or

(b) to matters affecting their personal dealings or relationships with other staff of the College, not being matters for which express provision is made elsewhere in this Statute.

34. (1) If other remedies within the relevant area have been exhausted the member of the academic staff may raise the matter with the Mistress.

(2) If it appears to the Mistress that the matter has been finally determined under Part III, IV or V or that the grievance is trivial or invalid, she may dismiss it summarily, or take no action upon it. If it so appears to the Mistress she shall inform the member and the Grievance Committee accordingly.

(3) If the Mistress is satisfied that the subject matter of the grievance could properly be considered with (or form the whole or any part of) –

(a) a complaint under Part III; or
(b) a determination under Part IV; or
(c) an appeal under Part V

she shall defer action upon it under this Part until the relevant complaint, determination or appeal has been heard or the time for instituting it has passed and she shall notify the member and the Grievance Committee accordingly.

(4) If the Mistress does not reject the complaint under sub-section (2) or if she does not defer action upon it under sub-section (3) she shall decide whether it would be appropriate, having regard to the interests of justice and fairness, for her to seek to dispose of it informally. If she so decides she shall notify the member and proceed accordingly.

35. If the grievance has not been disposed of informally under section 34(4), the Mistress shall refer the matter to the Grievance Committee for consideration.

36. The Grievance Committee to be appointed by the Governing Body shall comprise three Fellows of the College appointed by the Governing Body.

37. The procedure in connection with the consideration and determination of grievances shall be determined in Ordinances in such a way as to ensure that the aggrieved person and any person against whom the grievance lies shall have the right to be heard at a hearing and to be accompanied by a friend or representative.

38. The Committee shall inform the Council whether the grievance is or is not well-found and if it is well-found the Committee shall make such proposals for the redress of the grievance as it sees fit.
PART VII REMOVAL OF THE MISTRESS FROM OFFICE

39. Any three members of the Governing Body may make a complaint to the Vice-Mistress seeking the removal of the Mistress from office for good cause.

40. The Vice-Mistress shall refer such a complaint to the Council augmented as provided in Statute II, exclusive of the Mistress and the members making the complaint. If it appears to the Council that the complaint does not raise a prima facie case, or that it is trivial or invalid or unjustified, they may determine that no further action shall be taken upon it.

41. If it appears to the Council, on material presented, that the complaint raises a prima facie case which could, if proved, constitute good cause for the dismissal or removal of the Mistress from office, they shall appoint a Tribunal to hear and determine the matter. A Tribunal appointed by the Council shall consist of three persons who are not Fellows of the College and are not employed by the College, as follows:

(a) one person who holds, or has held, judicial office, or who is a barrister or solicitor of at least ten years’ standing, who shall be the Chair;

(b) two other persons.

42. A complaint referred to the Tribunal shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed in sections 17 to 19, provided that the Vice-Mistress shall perform any duty and exercise any power there assigned to the Mistress, and that for the purposes of this Part references in those sections to a Disciplinary Committee shall be construed as referring to the Tribunal.

43. The Tribunal shall send its decision on the complaint, together with its findings of fact and the reasons for its decision, to the Mistress and the Vice-Mistress. The Tribunal shall draw attention to the period of time within which any appeal should be instituted by ensuring that a copy of Part V of this Statute accompanies the notification of its decision sent to the Mistress.

44. If the Tribunal finds that the complaint constitutes good cause for dismissal, the Vice-Mistress, after consulting the Council, may dismiss the Mistress.
45. The Mistress may institute an appeal against the findings of a Tribunal by serving on the Vice-Mistress a notice in writing setting out the grounds of the appeal. A notice of appeal shall be served within twenty-eight days of the date on which the document recording the decision appealed from was sent to the Mistress, provided that the person appointed to hear an appeal shall have power to hear an appeal submitted after that date if she considers that justice and fairness so require in the circumstances of the case.

46. An appeal commenced under section 45 shall be heard in accordance with the provisions of Part V of this Statute, provided that the Vice-Mistress shall perform any duty and exercise any power there assigned to the Mistress, and references in sections 30 and 31 shall be construed as referring to this Part.

47. For the purpose of the removal of the Mistress for incapacity on medical grounds, the provisions of Part IV and Part V shall have effect, provided that the Vice-Mistress shall perform any duty or exercise any power there assigned to the Mistress.

48. For the purposes of this Part, references to the Vice-Mistress shall, if the Vice-Mistress is not in residence, or is incapacitated by illness or otherwise, be construed as referring to the senior Fellow under Title A available who is a member of the Council.
